

I respectfully request that the FCC leave the Wisconsin Do Not Call list in tact and in force. The citizens of this state are not interested in having a Federal agency weaken their protections from harassing telemarketers.